	§
STEPHEN RUNEA GLENN	§

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Findings of Fact

☐ A. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), § 3142(f)(1)].

☐ (1) The defendant has been convicted of a (federal offense) (state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) that is

☐ a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).

☐ an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.

☐ an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. () § 801 et seq. () § 951 et seq. () § 955(a).

☐ a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) (A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.

☐ (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

☐ (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

☐ (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

☒ B. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)]

☒ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense

☒ for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C.

☒ § 801 et seq. ☐ § 951 et seq. ☐ § 955(a).

☐ under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).

☒ (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

☒ C. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)]

☒ (1) Defendant is accused of drug and firearm offenses in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1), 841(b)(1)(A), 846, 18 U.S.C. § 2, and 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A).

☐ (1) As a condition of release of the defendant, bond was set as follows:

☒ (3) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) which will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

☒ (4) I find that there is no condition or combination of conditions set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c) which will reasonably assure the safety of any other person or the community.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information submitted at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Stephen Glenn is a 31 year old male citizen of the United States born in Houston, Texas. He is married and has two children. Glenn reported living at his own address with his wife and kids, but his mother reported that Glenn and his family lived with her. Defendant reports previously working in construction, but states he is currently unemployed. His mother could not corroborate his employment history.
2. Glenn is charged with conspiracy and possession with intent to distribute more than 50 grams of cocaine, as well as possession of a firearm in relation to drug trafficking offenses. Glenn faces a penalty of 10 years to life in prison.
3. Glenn has a prior conviction for unlawful possession of a firearm.
4. Glenn has an unstable employment history. He was fired from a job with Time-Warner 2 years ago. He introduced evidence of employment as a contract laborer since mid-January 2007, but has not explained the gap in his employment after Time-Warner.
5. Glenn's residency situation is also uncertain, given the discrepancy between the statements provided by his mother to pretrial services and the testimony of his wife. In any event, Glenn is apparently living in a rented house with no written lease agreement and an unnamed landlord.
6. The weight of the evidence of the underlying offense, particularly the presence of a loaded, concealed weapon with the illicit drugs in Glenn's vehicle, supports the statutory presumption of danger to the community.
7. Glenn has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
8. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas on April 16, 2007.

United States Magistrate Judge
